About W. M. Johnson Hills Park:

W. M. Johnson Hills Park is a 140-acre park that currently consists of rolling hills and wooded terrain. The community is fortunate to have this land secured as a park for future generations! The natural-surface hiking trails are marked; please stay on the trails. Dogs must be held on a 6' leash; please use the provided "mutt mitts". A public, portable restroom is available near the main parking lot. Another unique aspect of W. M. Johnson Hills Park is the past residence of William McNeilan Johnson and his wife Marian B. Johnson.
